"An Iron for Every Purpose"
Our Special Week Display Now On.

Good house-keepers always use "Asbestos Sad Irons." Why? Because they fulfill the requirements desired in ironing any articles, from the pressing of heaviest goods to smoothing the delicate linens. These irons are made in various shapes and weights to meet every demand.

They are a heat reservoir and a heat regulator, which requires the irons to be changed only half as often as other kinds.

You will find the best of workmanship in the finish and the manufacturing of Asbestos Sad Irons.

We wish the public to call and inspect our special display arranged in our store, consisting of irons for such uses as Pressing Irons, Polishing Irons, Sleeve Irons, Flounce Irons, Tourists' Irons, also two styles in laundry sets.

We believe upon inspection you will see the many advantages derived by the use of "Asbestos Sad Irons."

CHELSEA.

Death and Funeral of John B. Corliss, Veteran Stage Driver.

John B. Corliss died at his rooms at the hotel Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 23, from the effects of the paralytic shock he sustained a few days previous to his death. Mr. Corliss was born in Bradford and was seventy-three years old and is survived by one son, Clarence H. Corliss of this town, and one daughter, Mrs. Frank McWhorter of Barre City.

He came to this town about twenty-five years ago and for eighteen years drove the stage from Chelsea to Barre, and since that time he has driven the rural mail on route No. 1 from the Chelsea office. The funeral was held from the hotel Friday afternoon, Rev. Fred Daniels officiating, assisted by Rev. John A. Lawrence.

The interment was in Highland cemetery, the bearers being members of H. E. K. Hall, camp Sons of Veterans. The members of Waterbury post, No. 45, G. A. R. attended in a body.

Mrs. Alonzo F. Morey has returned from Randolph Center, where she has been for several months assisting in the care of her mother, Mrs. Lenora Robinson, who died November 7 at the age of seventy-six years, during the last three of which she has been an invalid.

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the grange will be held Friday evening of this week and every member should bear in mind that the annual election of officers takes place at this meeting, and they should consequently make a special effort to be present.

Miss Mary J. George entertained at her home on Wallace avenue from Wednesday until Sunday, two young gentlemen who are students in Dartmouth college, who were formerly students of hers when she lived and taught school in Melrose, Mass.

Postmaster Willard S. Hatch, who has been confined to his house by an attack of rheumatism for the past few days, is reported as recovering some what from the severity of the attack.

Flowers at Funeral of Mrs. Veino. The following were the floral tributes at the funeral of Mrs. Milford Veino, which was held yesterday: Pillow: "Wife," husband; pillow: "Mother," children; chrysanthemums, I. O. O. F.; carnations, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Veino, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Daffner, roses, teachers and pupils of Cobble hill grammar school; carnations, Wheaton Sunday school; roses, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parkhurst and Mr. and Mrs. F. Colvin; carnations, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Brainerd, Mrs. G. P. Winters; roses and carnations, Dr. Archambault; carnations, P. O. Wheaton, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gale, Mr. and Mrs. W. Mason, Mrs. E. D. Taft and family, Mr. and Mrs. S. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. John Summers, Mr. and Mrs. E. Keith, chrysanthemums, Mr. and Mrs. F. Trow; carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Beckley; roses, Mr. and Mrs. Covey; chrysanthemums, Miss Nellie Keith, Mr. and Mrs. William Beede; carnations, Mrs. O'Neil and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie; roses, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Griffin and family; carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Calogani, N. E. O. P. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. Ellen Owen and family, Ernest Hatch and Asa George, Mr. and Mrs. William Davis.

Isaac Gonyo, who resides in Berlin, met with an accident yesterday while at work in the woods. He was piling logs, and a large log rolled onto him, breaking his right leg just above the ankle. Dr. Z. Archambault of this city was called to set the fracture.

A city meeting will be held in Miles hall to-night at 8 o'clock to vote on the question of issuing water bonds to refund the city treasury with the amount which was paid out for constructing the new Orange brook reservoir, and if so voting, to determine the nature of the bonds.

Again, I ask all persons holding tickets for palmistry readings to present them this week. We shall positively close here next Saturday night. During the remainder of our stay here we will give all life readings at one-half the usual price. 74 North Main street; hours, 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. Madam Olga.

November 28, PAIR. That's what's going to be held in Howland hall. That's what the weather will be. That's what the prices will be. That's what you'll eat at the chicken-pie supper. From the time you enter the door until the time you reappear, your fair countenance will fairly beam. You will fare well, do farewell.

WAITSFIELD.

Miss Marguerite Kew, who teaches in Barre, spent Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. Martha Kew.

J. R. and J. D. Thompson took Thanksgiving dinner with friends in St. Albans.

Misses May Howe and Louise Gleason, teachers in the Montpelier Union school, spent the Thanksgiving vacation at home.

The many friends of L. K. Smith are glad to hear that he is still improving from a serious illness.

The dinner to be given by the ladies' aid society of the M. E. church has been postponed until Thursday on account of the death of Miss Mary J. Folsom.

The union services at the M. E. church last Sunday evening were well attended by members of both churches. Hope we will have more of them.

Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Roberts of Hartland are spending a few days with friends in town. Mr. Roberts was for nearly five years pastor of the M. E. church and everybody is glad to see him.

Miss Mary J. Folsom, who was for many years a successful teacher, died at the home of her brother, G. W. Folsom on Monday, November 28, aged 77 years. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

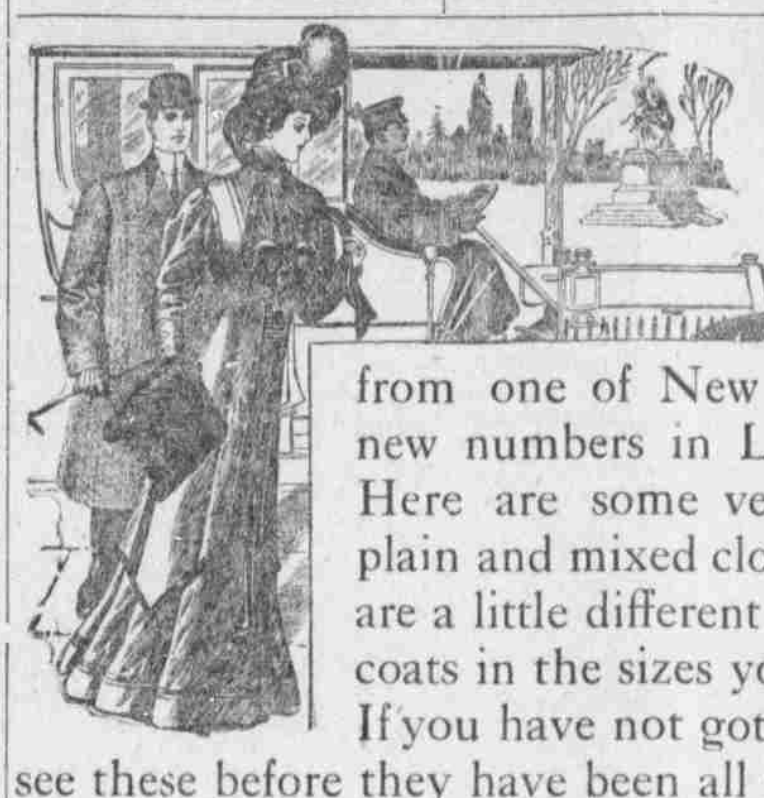

Regular meeting of Vincetta lodge, K. of P., to-night at 7:30 o'clock. Work, rank of knight.

Special convocation of Grand chapter, No. 28, R. A. M., Tuesday evening, Nov. 29, at 7 o'clock. Work, R. A. degree. Per order E. H. P.

Ladies' Coats

We have just received from one of New York's best coat houses new numbers in Ladies and Misses' Coats. Here are some very good models in both plain and mixed cloths. These are coats that are a little different in style and cloths, and coats in the sizes you have been looking for. If you have not got your coat yet you should see these before they have been all picked over.

Ladies' Long Coats

At $10.00 are some very good values in Long Coats, made in one of the best styles, both with the high and medium collar. Colors are gray and brown mixtures. These are exceptional values.

In plain cloths are some extra values for $12.50. These are a few regular Coats and some odd Coats that were $15.00. There is only one or two of a kind. Hence the price, $12.50.

At $12.50 are also a few Coats in mixed cloths. Coats that are very good values. The price was $15.00, but there is only one of a kind. We cannot duplicate these.

At $15.00 are what we have in odd Coats in which the cloths are closed, so we cannot duplicate them. These are Coats that were $18.00. If your size is here, they are exceptional values at $15.00.

Ladies' Long Coats

Among the Long Coats that we have just received are some very nobby numbers, both in the plain and mixed goods.

At $15.00 are a few plain cloth Coats that we close out at a reduced price. These are Coats that would sell at $18.00.

At $15.00 are some mixed cloth Coats in some of the best styles we have shown this season; are new and a very warm Coat. These are Coats that we bought under price and are giving the trade the benefit of our trade. These are regular $18.00 and $20.00 Coats, which we cannot duplicate, as we closed the lot. Now only $15.00.

We have just received some very good Silk Velour Coats. Coats that have the new shawl collar; are made in one of the best styles of the season. These are a very stylish and warm garment.

Ladies' and Misses' Tailored Suits

After so large a Tailored Suit season as we have had, we find on our racks a number of odd Suits that we cannot duplicate, some for the reason that the cloths are closed and in others the particular style has been dropped.

At one-fourth off from the regular price are a few Misses' Junior Suits in sizes 13, 15 and 17 years. These are Suits that are just as good style as we can buy to-day and are a better quality, but we cannot duplicate them, as the cloths are closed. Here are surely some extra good values. This means you can buy a $15.00 Suit while these last at $11.25.

In Ladies' Tailored Suits are a few of our best values that sold at $15.00. These are in a good all-wool worsted goods, made in the best style, but the cloths we cannot duplicate. To close at $11.25.

At $13.50 are a few odd Suits in our best cloths and styles, that sold at $18.00.

At $15.00 are a few Colored Coats in worsteds and novelty cloths; are our best values at $20.00. These are Suits in which the cloths are closed.

At $20.00 are a few odd Suits in colors that we cannot duplicate. These were our best values at $25.00.

Fur Lined Overcoats!

If not a necessity—always a luxury! The trouble with ordinary Fur Lined Coats is skimpiness—a saving of fabrics and furs at the expense of comfort and grace in fit.

Here are the other kind—roomy, full-fashioned Coats—without skimping anywhere.

The tailor's good work has not suffered at the hands of the furrier, as close inspection will prove.

The shells of these garments are made of finest imported broadcloth. Linings of muskrat and marmot. Persian lamb, blended rat and otter collars, $35, $50 to $175.

Plush Lined Coats, $16.50 and $20.00.

We will deem it a great pleasure, Sir, to show you these Coats of luxury. All sizes.
